Deed of Trust.
Whereas, Truster's Sale.
M. Koontz, his wife, Corinda, and the deed of trust, dated the 24th day of November, A. D. 1882, and recorded in book No. 17, page 281 of the records of Audrain county, Missouri, conveyed to the undersigned, an successor in trust, the following described real estate, situated in the city of Mexico, in the county of Audrain, in the State of Missouri, to-wit: Lot two (2) in block three (3), in the original town of Mexico, to secure the payment of the sum of one hundred and twenty-five certain promissory payable on demand, interest thereon, payable on demand. And, whereas, it is provided in said deed of trust that the grantor shall pay all taxes on said property, and in case of a breach of any of the covenants or conditions contained in said deed of trust, the principal and interest with interest up to the day of sale of all taxes levied for taxes and to protect the title to said premises, and become due and payable; and, whereas, default has been made in the payment of said note, interest and taxes, and, whereas, by the provisions of said deed of trust, in case of the liability or refusal of the trustor to pay the taxes, then the acting Sheriff of Audrain county, Missouri, may become his agent to sell the said premises, and the property; and, whereas, John M. Claiborne, the trustee named in said trust, is absent from the State, and unable to act. Now, therefore, at the request of the legal holder of said note, I, William G. Adams, Sheriff of Audrain county, Missouri, do hereby advertise and sell, to-wit: Saturday, March 2nd, A. D. 1883, between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m. of that day, at the courthouse in the city of Mexico, in the county of Audrain and State of Missouri, sell to the highest bidder, the said premises, and all the interest and all right and equity of the grantors in said deed of trust described herein, and the fixtures, and the interest, taxes and costs of executing a deed of trust in said deed of trust, to-wit: W. G. ADAMS, Sheriff of Audrain County, Mo.

Trustee's Sale.
Whereas, H. L. Dudley, by his deed of trust, dated on the fourth day of January, 1883, and recorded in the records of Audrain county, Missouri, in book No. 18, page 583, in trust deed record K. A. 1883, and conveyed to B. H. Ingram, as trustee, the following described real estate, situated in Audrain county, State of Missouri, to-wit: The southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section twenty-four (24) of township thirty-four (34) north, range ten (10), which said conveyance was made in trust, to secure the payment of the sum of one hundred and ten ($110), which said conveyance was made in trust, to secure the payment of the sum of one hundred and ten ($110) of the interest coupons; or if default made in the payment of taxes, as provided in said deed of trust, the acting Sheriff of Audrain county, Missouri, shall proceed to execute powers therein conferred, and, whereas, default has been made in the payment of the said note, and the acting Sheriff of said county, for the time being, shall proceed to execute the powers therein conferred, and, whereas, B. H. Ingram is absent from said county and has refused to act; and, whereas, the following named person, to-wit: George W.
